

| Classification | Major Legal Risk | Yes/No |
|--|--|--------|
| Occupational embezzlement | An act of embezzling or refusing to return the property by a person who has the custody of another's property, with intention of illegally owning it. | |
| Breach of trust | An act of obtaining pecuniary advantage or causing a third person to do so, thereby causing loss to such another's business, by a person who administers another's business, in violation of one's duty | |
| Offering of bribe, etc. | An act of promising, giving or expressing his/her intent to give a bribe to a public official in relation to such public official's duty with intent to obtain any improper advantage for such transaction (e.g., paying express fee to facilitate processing by the authority). | |
| | An Act of receiving or giving money or valuables to a third person for the purpose of providing bribe to a public official. | |
| | An Act of promising, giving or expressing his/her intent to give a bribe to a foreign public official in relation to any international business transaction with intent to obtain any improper advantage for such transaction. | |
| Receiving or giving bribe by breach of trust | An act of receiving property or obtaining pecuniary advantage from a third person in response to an illegal solicitation concerning his/her duty by a person who administers another's business | |
| | An act of providing property or pecuniary advantage to a third person who administers another's business for illegal solicitation concerning the third person's duty | |
| Bribery | An act of promising, giving or expressing his/her intent to give money or valuables worth KRW 1 million (per case) or KRW 3 million (per fiscal year) to a public official or his/her spouse | |
| | An act of promising, giving or expressing his/her intent to give money or valuables worth KRW 1 million (per case) or KRW 3 million (per fiscal year) to a public official or his/her spouse, in relation to his/her duties | |
| Unlawful Solicitation | An act of making unlawful solicitation to a public official conducting his/her duties, etc., directly or through a third person | |
| Contribution to political funds | An act of making contribution to political funds in a corporation's name or with funds related to the corporation | |
| Indecent act by compulsion | An act of committing, through violence or intimidation, an indecent act on another | |
| | An act of committing an indecent act against another person who is under his/her protection or supervision by reason of his/her business, employment or other relationship, through fraudulent means or by a threat of force | |
| Sexual harassment | An act of sexually harassing an employee on job by employer, supervisor or employee | |
| Insider trading | An act of using undisclosed material information of a company which he/her comes to the knowledge in relation to the job for transactions such as transaction of the securities issued by the company and providing such information to a third person | |
| Unfair collaborative act | An act of engaging in unfair collaborative act set forth in the MRFTA, including fixing, maintaining or changing the price, or determining terms and conditions for the transaction of goods or services, or for payment of prices thereof, with other enterprisers | |
| Copyright infringement | An act of illegally using or copying the copyrighted materials such computer program protected by the Copyright Act, without an appropriate authority | |
| Leaking of military secrets | An act of leaking to others the military secrets he/she has known or possessed in the conduct of that business, intentionally or by negligence by a person who handles or has handled military secrets in the conduct of business | |

* Please note that the above list is based on the laws and regulations effective as of October 31, 2015 and does not include all legal risks.